Report of the management committee

The management committee present their report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2015.

Reference and administrative information set out on page 1 forms part of this report. The financial statements comply with current statutory requirements, the memorandum and articles of association and the Statement of Recommended Practice – Accounting and Reporting by Charities (SORP 2005).

Achievements and performance

Clinks continues to be respected as a trusted, effective advocate for the voluntary sector and an important critical friend for government. Clinks fulfils three key roles for the sector, particularly the small and medium-sized organisations that often lack their own advocacy and intelligence-gathering capacity.

- We act as a channel of communication to members about what is happening nationally and politically both within the sector and across a wide range of government departments whose policies impact on offenders and their lives.
- We provide a voice for the sector, and have been effective in keeping a range of voluntary sector issues on the agenda.
- We offer practical help to members and act as a catalyst for change promoting evidence based innovation and good practice.

Our membership remains healthy showing the value we can add to local and national voluntary sector organisations. We have been able to highlight the real issues facing our members in our State of the Sector surveys. Our publications and regular Light Lunch newsletter provide valued information and support to our members.

At the same time, we have pressed for appropriate recognition and understanding of the sector's value and needs during discussions on the new Transforming Rehabilitation (TR) contracts. A time of such rapid and major change really demonstrates the importance of the voluntary sector and an organisation like Clinks.

Throughout the Transforming Rehabilitation (TR) process, Clinks has been at the forefront of maintaining a dialogue between government and the voluntary sector, making sure our members (that want to and are able to) are well placed to participate in the new arrangements. Over the next 12 months, we will continue to monitor the implementation of the new TR programmes to ensure that they work for those who they are intended to help.

Whatever happens in policy and commissioning, the role of the sector is the same: to encourage and support everyone to embark on a journey of change towards a better life, and to ensure that they have the opportunity to achieve their goal. Together with our members, we will work to give people that opportunity, helping to reduce reoffending, cutting the number of victims of crime and making our communities safer places to live.

Clinks

In the Autumn of 2014 there was a comprehensive independent review of infrastructure services for the voluntary sector working in the Criminal Justice System. An overwhelming majority of the respondents expressed support for the role that infrastructure plays in supporting the voluntary sector throughout the Criminal Justice System. The review showed that the voluntary sector clearly values the infrastructure support they receive. Evidence that infrastructure organisations are vital for the future of an informed and effective service.

Government officials, private sector companies, and academics were all able to articulate how infrastructure had helped them achieve positive outcomes and deliver their objectives. They recognised that infrastructure organisations needed to represent the diverse views of a complex voluntary sector, and simultaneously be a 'critical friend' to government.

As for the future, Clinks will need to be dynamic and flexible, ready to respond to both risks and opportunities. Given our track record, we will continue to act as a powerful advocate and champion the vital contribution of the voluntary sector working in the Criminal Justice System.

Financial Review

There continues to be a difficult operating environment for the voluntary sector which was highlighted in Clinks most recent State of the Sector report. However, Clinks is currently able to deal with some of the current challenges, with reasonable security for the coming year.

The statement of financial activities shows there has been an increase of 25% in restricted funds and an increase of 15% in unrestricted funds for the year, Clinks were able to generate a surplus and have ended the year as expected. Some of the projects closed at the end of the year but this is because they came to a natural end.

The trustees have been keen to ensure that Clinks have been able to take advantage of appropriate funding opportunities to maintain our work and where possible the work of our members as well, for example, as advertising funding opportunities every week in Light Lunch and informing the sector about contracts with Government departments, like the Ministry of Justice and Cabinet Office.

We are very aware of the impact that the economic downturn has had on the sector working in criminal justice. Clinks have continued to survey Voluntary, Community and Social Enterprise (VCSE) Sector organisations working within the Criminal Justice System. The key findings from this survey outline where the sector is experiencing challenges, including achieving full cost recovery on contracts they are delivering, winning new contracts and responding to the changing and increasingly complex needs of service users.

There is also the concerning picture of an increase in demand for services as well as a complexity of service need which will present more of a challenge as further public service reforms are implemented. The right services are required to support people's desistance from crime, work alongside families affected by the Criminal Justice System, and improve the communities that are worst affected by crime and poverty.

Clinks

The current financial situation for Clinks remains fairly healthy. The trustees' policy will be to continue to maintain a level of unrestricted reserves that represents at least six months of future expenditure for the charity. The reserves policy is reviewed annually by the trustees.

Reserves Policy

The free reserves at 31 March 2015 are £811,047 which is at least 6 months' expenditure. Trustees have satisfied themselves that safeguards are in place to allow Clinks to operate with a comfortable margin of safety at this level. The reserves held are sufficient to cover the charity's obligations in the event of a winding up. Income and expenses are predictable. Contribution to members of staff defined contribution pension schemes is also predictable at a fixed percentage of gross salaries.

Plans for the future

Our plans for the future remain in line with our mission to ensure the Sector, and all those with whom they work, are informed and engaged in order to transform the lives of offenders. Clinks will ensure we are up-to-date and well informed of sector issues by gathering intelligence through engagement and dialogue with our extensive networks, events and meetings, and surveys. We will lobby and influence government and other stakeholders through regular meetings; engagement with committees; and policy responses to ensure that policy and legislation supports the work of the voluntary sector. Clinks provides a comprehensive range of accessible information and communication and will continue to provide concise, accessible and vital information for the sector.

The Transforming Rehabilitation Programme presents a major change to the way in which rehabilitation support is funded and delivered. Clinks has worked hard to support sector understanding and informed engagement with the programme and in the coming year will monitor the impact of the programme on the voluntary sector.

Statement of responsibilities of the trustees

The trustees (who are also directors of Clinks for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the report of the trustees' and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent

Clinks

Report of the management committee

- State whether applicable UK Accounting Standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

There is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware. The trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Members of the charity guarantee to contribute an amount not exceeding £1 to the assets of the charity in the event of winding up. The total number of such guarantees at 31 March 2015 was 10 (2014 – 9). The trustees are members of the charity but this entitles them only to voting rights. The trustees have no beneficial interest in the charity.

Auditors

Sayer Vincent LLP were re-appointed as the charitable company's auditors during the year and have expressed their willingness to continue in that capacity.

The report of the trustees has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions applicable to companies subject to the small companies' regime.

Independent auditors report

To the members of

Clinks

We have audited the financial statements of Clinks for the year ended 31 March 2015 which comprise primary financial statements and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's members, as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

As explained more fully in the statement of trustees' responsibilities set out in the report of the trustees, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charitable company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the trustees; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the report of the trustees to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements:

- Give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2015 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended
- Have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice
- Have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006

Independent auditors report

To the members of

Clinks

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the report of the trustees, for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- Adequate accounting records have not been kept or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us
- The financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns
- Certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made
- We have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit
- The trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies' regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemption in preparing the report of the trustees and take advantage of the small companies' exemption from the requirement to prepare a strategic report

Notes to the financial statements

1. Accounting policies

- a) The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards and the Companies Act 2006. They follow the recommendations in the Statement of Recommended Practice, Accounting and Reporting by Charities (SORP 2005).
- b) Voluntary income is received by way of donations and gifts and is included in full in the statement of financial activities when receivable.
- c) Revenue grants are credited to the statement of financial activities when received or receivable whichever is earlier.

Where unconditional entitlement to grants receivable is dependent upon fulfilment of conditions within the charity's control, the incoming resources are recognised when there is sufficient evidence that conditions will be met. Where there is uncertainty as to whether the charity can meet such conditions the incoming resource is deferred.

- d) Restricted funds are to be used for specific purposes as laid down by the donor. Expenditure which meets these criteria is charged to the fund.
- e) Unrestricted funds are donations and other incoming resources received or generated for the charitable purposes.
- f) Designated funds are unrestricted funds earmarked by the management committee for particular purposes.
- g) Resources expended are recognised in the period in which they are incurred. Resources expended include attributable VAT which cannot be recovered. All expenditure has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category.

Support costs are those costs incurred directly in support of expenditure on the objects of the charity and include central functions that have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Governance costs are the costs associated with the governance arrangements of the charity. These costs are associated with constitutional and statutory requirements and include any costs associated with the strategic management of the charity's activities.

- h) Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write down the cost of each asset to its estimated residual value over its expected useful life. The depreciation rates in use are as follows:

Office equipment	4 years

Items of equipment are capitalised where the purchase price exceeds £150. Depreciation costs are allocated to activities on the basis of the use of the related assets in those activities. Assets are reviewed for impairment if circumstances indicate their carrying value may exceed their net realisable value and value in use.

Arts Alliance

Clinks is working with a range of different organisations to improve policies and practice in relation to arts-based work with offenders and their families. This includes developing the Arts Alliance as the main national network for arts organisations that work in the criminal justice system.

CFJ Innovation

The StreetCraft Scholarships are a partnership between the Young Foundation, Centre for Justice Innovation and Clinks. They are aimed at practitioners who wish to put a creative idea for sustainable criminal justice innovation into practice and two of the practitioners receive tailored support from Clinks.

Building Capacity in the South West

Our current work aims to enable local voluntary organisations working with offenders to adapt to the changing Criminal Justice System, whilst also using local experience to help shape national policy.

Transition to Adulthood (T2A) Project

The Alliance is a broad coalition of organisations and individuals which identifies and promotes the need for a distinct and radically different approach to young adults in the Criminal Justice System; an approach that is proportionate to their maturity and responsive to their specific needs. Clinks is currently developing guidance for probation practitioners on working with young adults, on behalf of the Transitions to Adulthood Alliance.

JIVE Project

This project has established a network of non-governmental organisations [NGOs] working in the criminal justice sector in order to exchange ideas and share good practice. There are two main areas of work that the project focuses on: 1] the role and value of volunteers working with offenders, their families and victims and 2] working effectively in partnership with statutory and private organisations.

Small and Innovative Project

A fund to support small and innovative projects delivering services to offenders and/or their families by the facilitation of new partnerships and collaborative working relationships, advocating to and influencing policy makers and commissioners, circulating information, providing voice and representation and other support services.

Home Office

Safer Future Communities is supporting the Voluntary Community and Social Enterprise (VCSE) Sector to engage with and influence the forthcoming Police and Crime Commissioners (PCCs) and the new commissioning landscape in which they will operate. We are working through local Safer Future Communities networks made up of VCSE organisations in each police force area in England and Wales.

Health Work

Clinks, along with NACRO and Action for Prisoners' Families, are members of the criminal justice group in the Strategic Partner Programme seeking to address Health issues such as substance misuse or mental health problems which can lead to contact with the Criminal Justice System. Addressing the health needs of this group can reduce re-offending, and have a positive impact on the health of their communities.

MEAM - Local Development/MEAM - Policy

Local Development - The MEAM approach was developed to provide a non-prescriptive framework for areas to develop a coordinated and flexible approach to supporting adults with multiple and complex needs. At present there are 11 areas across the country developing the MEAM approach and Clinks provides local development support to two of these. The MEAM Coalition also provides support to the 12 Big Lottery Fulfilling Lives areas. Policy - Clinks deliver the Voices from the Frontline project, as part of an embedded policy team across the MEAM coalition partners. The project aims to raise the voice of people experiencing multiple needs to government, as well as highlighting the impact of policies on this group.

14. Restricted funds (continued)

London Development Project

The project focuses on the changing criminal justice landscape, as it affects the voluntary sector in the London boroughs and pan-London, encompassing Integrated Offender Management (IOM), Transforming Rehabilitation, changes to the delivery of offender health services, the localism agenda, and the challenges and opportunities of commissioning and procurement.

NE Local Development

The work in the North East supports the Voluntary, Community and Social Enterprise (VCSE) Sector to reduce crime, promote community safety, and reduce re-offending. The project focuses on the changing Criminal Justice System (CJS) landscape, as this affects the VCSE sector in the North East.

NOMS Legal Support

Clinks is providing support to the voluntary sector to engage with Transforming Rehabilitation (TR). Voluntary sector organisations and social enterprises can access information about the contracting process for TR, including legal information and bespoke legal advice sessions.

Women Offenders

This focuses on Clinks policy work with female offenders, highlighting the specific needs faced by female offenders through reactive and proactive policy work including briefing papers and consultation responses; and to support and raise the profile of the sector providing specialised gender-specific support.

Infrastructure Fund- Ministry of Justice

A strategic grant from the Criminal Justice Group to deliver outcomes in relation to representation and voice, communication and partnership working.

Lemos and Crane

The project aims to build and provide support to the voluntary sector and prisons, to enable a strong voluntary sector engagement that will support the rehabilitation and resettlement of offenders, wherever they are serving their sentences. It will be conducted alongside Lemos and Crane's Good Prisons project.

NOMS - Black, Asian, minority ethnic (BAME)

Black, Asian, Minority Ethnic individuals are over represented at every stage of the Criminal Justice System. Clinks are working in partnership with BAME organisations to challenge this imbalance and provide tailored support to organisations working with BAME offenders.

This fund, which has now been fully spent, enabled Clinks to employ a Strategic Development Manager. The role involved a review of Clinks' strategic direction and supporting Clinks' continuous development by identifying and developing suitable opportunities to ensure the sustainability of Clinks in a rapidly changing environment. This has helped to raise the profile of Clinks in different contexts, across sectors, and supported the more effective co-ordination of different strands of work across the organisation.

16. Operating lease commitments

17. Related Party Transactions

Due to the nature of the charity's operations and the composition of the Board of Trustees (being drawn from local public and other charitable organisations) it is inevitable that transactions may take place with organisations in which a member of the Board of Trustees may have an interest. All transactions involving organisations in which a member of the Board of Trustees may have an interest are conducted at arm's length and in accordance with the charity's normal financial procedures.
